CMN and EA Canada Raises Funds and Awareness for Prostate Cancer

Toronto, ON – CMN and Europ Assistance (EA Canada) is pleased to announce their support and participation in Movember 2011. Over the course of the month of November, a team of 7 CMN and EA Canada staff members rose to the challenge to change their appearance and the face of men's health by growing a mustache in support of prostate cancer. 2011 marked the second year that CMN and EA Canada participated in this fundraising event and through various fundraising initiatives, the team raised over $5,700 for Prostate Cancer Research, which ranked them #927 in Canada.

"CMN and EA Canada have a long history of helping patient's access and receive the best medical treatments available around the globe. We are proud of our team's continued support and participation in Movember, as it provided us with a great opportunity to support and raise funds for an organization dedicated to researching and identifying more thorough prostate cancer screening tests and treatment options." says Brad Loder, Director of Marketing, CMN Global Inc and Europ Assistance Canada.

CMN's 2011 Movember team consisted of Alex Kroon, Brad Loder, Reid Cawston, Ruben Pereira, Tremayne Mischev, Chris van der Vliet and Stephanie Freeman.
