News Release

HCC Medical Insurance Services Selects CMN as Network Administrator

Toronto, May 31, 2010 – CMN is pleased to announce that HCC Medical Insurance Services, LCC (HCCMIS) has selected us as their new international healthcare provider network administrator. HCCMIS now utilizes CMN for their healthcare provider network administration in North America and internationally.

Mark Carney, HCCMIS's CEO, states "This expansion of services for our customers through improving efficiencies and access to leading doctors and facilities around the world has reinforced our commitment to being the industry's international health insurance choice by consumers and business partners."

Peter Lozier, Executive Vice-President, CMN comments "CMN is proud to be working with HCCMIS. The synergy between both companies is vivid and we envision a true win/win relationship for years to come. CMN's highly skilled case management team deals one-on-one with each patient to identify individual needs and uses our vast resources to accommodate them, while ensuring that patients are treated with compassion, empathy and respect."
