News Release

CMN INTRODUCES OPTIONS TO MEDICAL TREATMENT IN THE USA International Medical Services and International Cost Containment

Toronto, June 9, 2010 – CMN is pleased to announce the launch of “The International-Medical Passport®”, an integrated platform for medical treatment in centers of excellence outside the U.S. The International-Medical Passport® offers never before available solutions for clients seeking options for their members who are under-insured for treatment in the U.S. The International-Medical Passport® is licensed from, and operated through a strategic partnership with International-Triage, LLC.

“The U.S. is the world’s highest cost healthcare destination, and over the past 10 years, CMN has worked diligently to deliver clients the best value in U.S. based cost containment. By expanding our services to optional destinations, we are responding to a paradigm shift of our clients. The International-Medical Passport® allows us to better service the cost containment goals of our clients who need effective solutions for their members who are under-insured for treatment in the U.S. CMN has chosen to partner with International-Triage, LLC in order to offer our clients a seamless and convenient business process for accessing and managing alternatives to medical care in the U.S. Our integrated business process maintains the same high quality case management, clinical care and customer service that we deliver to our customer in North America” says Alex Kroon, President and CEO, CMN Inc.

“CMN's partnership with International-Triage extends our reach to cost effective treatment destinations in Colombia, Panama, Costa Rica and the Dominican Republic. Our clients can expect upwards of 50% savings compared to the best discounts in the U.S., with even higher savings on complex tertiary cases such as neonatal, cancer, neurosurgery and complex cardiac surgery.”

The International-Medical Passport® offers a solution to families whose insurance coverage is insufficient for treatment in the U.S. It is also a sustainable fiscal solution for Governments that are responsible for indigent care” says S. Shai Gold, Managing Partner and CEO, International-Triage, LLC. “Our concept is welcome because we fill an unmet need. The program is a perfect solution for catastrophic cases, such as neonatal, cancer, neurosurgery and other tertiary and quaternary level treatments.

About International-Triage, LLC

Launched in January, 2010, International-Triage, LLC (www.internationaltriage.com) is a management service organization offering integrated treatment and customer service plans that save up to 75% on American quality medical services. International-Triage provides 24x7 access to high quality medical treatment for emergency and scheduled cases at our proprietary, multi-national, consortium of American quality hospitals.
