CMN Inc. Raises Funds and Awareness for Prostate Cancer

Toronto, ON – CMN is pleased to announce their support and participation in Movember. Over the course of the month of November, a team of 8 CMN staff members rose to the challenge to change their appearance and the face of men's health by growing a mustache in support of prostate cancer. This year marked the first time that CMN participated in this fundraising event and through various fundraising initiatives including donations and a company bake sale, the team was able to raise $4,236 for Prostate Cancer, which ranked them #834 in Canada.

"CMN has a long history of assisting patient's access and receive the best medical treatments available. We are proud of our support and participation in Movember, as it provided us with a great opportunity to raise awareness of prostate cancer and raise funds that will go directly to the vital research that will help identify more thorough screening tests and treatment options." says Brad Loder, Director of Marketing, CMN Inc.

CMN's 2010 Movember team consisted of Alex Kroon, Peter Lozier, Brad Loder, Reid Cawston, Peter Muir, Mikhael Sambrano, Omar Sharif, and Ruben Pereira.
