News Release

CMN Inc. Expands Leadership Team and Appoints COO

Toronto, April 1, 2005 – CMN is pleased to announce that they have expanded their senior leadership team by appointing Alex Kroon as their new Chief Operating Officer (COO), effective April 1, 2005.

In this newly created position, Alex will be responsible for the leadership of case management, claims, repricing, systems, finance and human resources. The addition of the COO position at CMN will enable Peter Lozier to focus on Sales, Account Management and Provider Relations as the Vice President responsible for those functions reporting to John Park.

Prior to joining CMN, Alex held senior leadership positions in both entrepreneurial and corporate environments, including being on the leadership team of two successful startup companies. He was also directly responsible for running operations for the Canadian division of a global company, launching new products and assisting organizations to improve the effectiveness of their people, processes and technology. With over 15 years of leadership experience obtained in the technology, telecom, and consulting sectors, Alex brings a diverse and well rounded senior leadership background to CMN.

“Alex has an exceptional operational and leadership background which further strengthens the depth of our senior leadership team. The appointment of Alex to this newly created position is the next step in the evolution of our rapidly growing organization and he will be instrumental in driving CMN’s future growth, prosperity and improvement.” says John Park, Founder and President, CMN Inc.
